

Blake Farm Dayschool

Communicable Disease Notification

The parent of a Blake Farm Dayschool student that has been diagnosed with a communicable disease will notify Blake Farm Dayschool as soon as possible with the information regarding the illness. Children must be excluded from school until the condition is no longer present or until the student is cleared to return by a licensed physician. A list of communicable diseases and their symptoms can be requested from the office.

SIGNATURES

Parent/Guardian

Date

Administrator of Center

Date